

Skills Development Centre holds Swathi Thirunal fest

Skills Development Centre, centre of Fine Arts and Performing Arts located at new Salata conducted Swathi Thirunal Dance and Music Festival with a variety of Indian classical dance and music programmes. The late Maharaja, Swathi Thirunal Rama Varma, was considered to be the patron of Indian classical music in the history of Indian Music and the festival was a tribute to him on his 204th birth anniversary.

The programme was inaugurated by Dr R Seetharaman, CEO of Doha Bank, accompanied by Harish M Kanjani, renowned entrepreneur, philanthropist and community leader; Arvind Patil, former President of Indian Community Benevolent Forum; PN Baburajan, Director of SDC; A K Jaleel Director of SDC; Soumya Naidu, renowned Classical dance and yoga maestro.

During the function SDC honored Dr R Seetharaman for his rare achievement by receiving Pravasi Bharathiya Samman award conferred by Hon'ble President of India.

The programmes were based on creations of Swathi Thirunal Maharaja performed by the students of Skills Development Centre.

This enchanting Dance & Music endeavour was witnessed by people from different fields and communities including the students and parents of Skills Development Centre.
